

Comic Happenings

Story Writing Questions

Creating a plan for your story is a valuable part of the story writing process.
Consider the following questions and examples to get you thinking!

Who are your characters? Friends Family Neighbours Superheroes Teachers Pets Historic figures Supernatural beings	Where does your story take place? School trip Classroom Sports Summer vacation Home life Extra-curricular activity Travel Nature/outdoors Outer space
What is your plot? Remember that stories have a beginning, middle, and end. Stories can also follow a five-stage sequence of beginning — build up —climax/conflict —resolution—ending. Use the Storyboard Template to map out your plot.	When does your story take place? Past Present Future
Does your story have a conflict? What problem can be addressed in your story? Student vs. technology Student vs. nature Student vs. parents Student vs. friends Student vs. school Wardrobe mishap Moving to a new city Weather storm Bad hair day	What is the mood of your story and characters? Happy Sad Angry Romantic Tense